

RIVERDALE MEDIATION

SCREENING FOR POWER IMBALANCES, INCLUDING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, IN FAMILY MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION

A course for lawyers, mediators, parenting coordinators, educators and mental health professionals

TORONTO: March 23 & 24, 2010

HILARY LINTON, LL.B., LL.M., Acc. FM

Provides the 14 hours of study required by Ontario's Attorney General under the Arbitration Act, and covers:

- Types of domestic violence and how (and why) to differentiate
- Sources of power imbalances
- How to "screen" and various "screening tools"
- Impact of domestic violence on children
- Different purposes of screening in mediation and arbitration
- Recommended "screening reports"
- How to structure the process where concerns are identified
- How to safely terminate a process

Hilary Linton

Where: Riverdale Mediation
2000 - 393 University Avenue
Toronto, Ontario

Cost: $750 plus GST ($787.50)

"Interactive, informative, proactive and compelling"

"The course was designed and expertly presented in a manner that encouraged important and provocative discussion. I thoroughly enjoyed it. Thanks"

For more information and to register, visit www.riverdalemediation.com or contact Valérie at valerie@riverdalemediation.com

