

RIVERDALE MEDIATION

POWER IMBALANCES IN FAMILY LAW CASES (14 Hours)

Toronto: April 2 & 3, 2012: 9am – 4pm

Hilary Linton with guest speakers T.B.A

A course for collaborative and family lawyers, mediators, parenting coordinators, paralegals, educators and mental health professionals seeking to know more about the elements of power in intimate relationships. This dynamic and practical workshop uses professional actors and features skilled and knowledgeable guest speakers. Meets the requirements of OAFM and ADRIQ for family mediator accreditation, and also Ontario's Ministry of the Attorney Generals requirements for those providing family arbitration.

- Understanding power imbalances
- Different types of domestic violence
- How to "screen" in mediation and arbitration
- Who does the screening
- Screening tools and reports
- How to address safety concerns
- How to safely terminate mediation and arbitration

LOCATION: Centre for Social Innovation
215 Spadina Avenue, Suite 400.
Toronto, Ontario

COST: $800 plus HST ($904)

REQUIRED FOR BASIC FAMILY NEGOTIATION AND MEDIATION

This program has been accredited by the Law Society for 13 New Member Hours, 3.5 Professionalism Hours and 9.5 Substantive hours.

REGISTRATION POLICY: Registration for courses closes on March 26, 2012. Any registrations made and accepted after this date are non-refundable. Full payment of fees is due before registrations are accepted. Refunds of the registration fee less an administration fee of 15% plus HST will be provided for cancellations made before March 26, 2012.

"All of the instructors were well-prepared, interesting to listen to, and had lots of expert and practical information to share. Professional actors made the role plays believable and very effective!"

"This course is an excellent mix of theory, role plays and class discussions about practical issues and the grey areas. The resource material is very helpful and the pace and structure of the course kept things interesting. I would definitely recommend this course to others. Thanks!"

"The overall course was excellent. There is so much to learn. This course highlighted how challenging this work is and how thoughtful, insightful, patient and aware we must be."

For more information and to register, visit www.riverdalemediation.com or contact us at training@riverdalemediation.com

2000-393 University Avenue
Toronto, Ontario M5G 1E6

T 416.593.0210
F 416.593.1352

hello@riverdalemediation.com
www.riverdalemediation.com